

BRIEF PROFILE OF MRS MERSHAK HANNATU

Mrs Hannatu Paul Mershak was born on the 2nd of February 1970 in Mangu local government area of Plateau State, Nigeria

PROFILE OF MRS HANNATU MERSHAK PAUL

Mrs Mershak is the President of Cooperative Federation of Nigeria, the apex body for cooperative societies in Nigeria. She held various positions in CFN prior to her current position, which included the Zonal Coordinator, North-Central Region (2018-2022), National Treasurer (2022-2025). She served as the President of Plateau State Cooperative Federation from 2018-2026. and President of Jos, University Teaching Hospital, Multipurpose Cooperative Society Ltd, from 2014-2018. In all these positions held, she provided visionary leadership and contributed significantly to the growth of the cooperative movement in Plateau State and Nigeria.

She holds a Bachelor of Science (B.Sc.) degree in Accounting from the University of Jos. She worked and retired as a Chief Accountant with the Jos University Teaching Hospital, having attained the Statutory 35 years in Service.

With over twenty years of experience in cooperative development and management, she has actively contributed to the growth of the cooperative movement in Nigeria.

Mrs Hannatu Mershak has the capacity to contribute meaningfully towards achieving the set goals of the Gender Equality Committee (GEC).